Varsity Varieties Inaugurated Next Friday; Novelty Numbers Featured

Wm. Smith Chosen Master of Ceremonies For Newly Organized Program

San Francisco State will play host to the radio listeners of the State, when it inaugurates the Varsity Varieties over the Orange Network of the California Radio System on Friday night at 9:30. KYA will release the program locally.

Varsity Varieties will feature the songs of Helen Louise Cox and Murdy Mansfield. Miss Cox was the winner of the California's Hour program. Mansfield has been singing with several bands and according to studio officials will be one of the outstanding performers on the show.

William J. J. Smith, former editor of the Golden Gater will be the Master of Ceremonies on the initial broadcast. He will be spotlighted along with a feminine stooge, whose name will not be revealed until the broadcast.

Other featured numbers will be a tap dance by Iva Beth Caine and several musical numbers by the Singing Sophomores, formerly the Jailbird's Quartet.

"We are still on the lookout for performers," declared Bill Buchan today. "We have been assured that the programs will continue for an indefinite period. Any person or group who have speciality acts suitable for radio presentation are asked to contact me through Box 837 for auditions."

Journalism Class Is Held Weekly at Noon

Through arrangements made with Mrs. Ruth Witt-Diamont, journalism instructor, the Alpha Phi Gamma, college journalism fraternity, will hold its weekly noon classes on Mondays at 12:10 in conjunction with the Journalism 117 class already given here.

The first meeting, held Monday noon, was conducted by Clarice Dechent, director of the Board of Publications, and W. J. J. Smith, former editor of the Golden Gater.

Present plans call for two lectures on the news story for the next meeting to be held Monday, March 22, in room 117. Max R. Williamson, editor of the Golden Gater, and Jean Coplestone, a former editor, will probably discuss different phases of the subject, according to Demeke.

Sophs Sponsor Dance

Sponsors for the noon dance to be held in the Women's Gym March 31 will be the high-sophomore class. A meeting of this group has been scheduled by President Frank Muldoon for 11 o'clock Thursday in Room 210.

Dean Ward Sends Out New Reports

The conditions under which college women who are available for part time assistants in homes to be employed are stated as follows: Those receiving room and board at $15.00 a month are, the student will put in 3 hours of service on co" e days, and 6 hours on Saturday. There will be no heavy cleaning or family washing, and the students will be free all day Sunday after breakfast, but in addition to the above, the student will be requested to stay at home any evening or evenings, except Sunday, to care for children, provided the children will not require actual attention after 8 p. m. Students are usually required to be at college from 9 a. m. to 4 p. m. daily.

In the case of students receiving room, board, and $10.00 a month, the same regulations apply, except that there will be required of the students, 3 hours' work on Saturday.

The students are expected to have a private room, with adequate heat, suitable light, and a study table.

The responsibilities of the student should be made clear to her when she is interviewed, in order to allow her to plan her work in a way that will enable her to give the best possible service.

Low Sophomores Plan Pre-Easter Shuffle

"As its first social event for the Spring semester, the low Sophomore class will sponsor a Pre-Easter Dance March 24, in the Women's Gym," Morley Carrothers, class president, announced today.

The dance is to be a sports affair and the committee in charge guarantee that the music selected will be excellent. Admission will be twenty-five cents per person or fifty cents a couple.

Committeemen include Carrothers, Gwen Smith, Don Amos, Frances Winburger, Roberta Sandeen, Claire Hittle, Peggy Clifford, Lee Scarlett and Harold Chandler.

Decennial Dinner Entertainment Planned

Stephen Lehmer to Sing Several Songs; Dances Given by Alice Wilson; Many Notables Will Attend

Entertainment plans for the coming Decennial Dinner honoring the tenth anniversary of Dr. Alexander C. Roberts' administration are now complete, according to Miss Eileen McCall of the Music Department.

Stephen Lehmer, a baritone, will sing several songs as a part of the program. Miss Alice Wilson, sponsored by the Women's P. E. department, will dance. During the course of the affair a trio will play atmospheric music.

Mrs. Witt Diamont, general faculty chairman, emphasized the fact that no tickets would be sold at the door and no provisions would be made to sell them there. Bids will sell for $1.50 to all faculty members and $1.25 to all students.

Some of the city and state notables have been invited to the dinner and some have signified their intention of coming.

Dean Mary A. Ward is in charge of a receiving committee and all students who are interested are asked to contact her at their earliest opportunity.

Groups interested in reserving separate tables are also urged to contact the committee or Mrs. Diamont at once.

Bib 'N' Tucker Club Holds Fashion Show

A fashion talk on "What to Wear and How to Wear It" will be given on March 18, at 12 noon in the Little Theatre by Janice Street, college consultant at the University of California in 1935 and now in the College Shop of O'Connor, Moffatt & Co.

She is bringing exclusive models originally designed by Louise Mulligan, as well as sport and dress types appropriate for campus and business wear.

The show is sponsored by Bib 'n' Tucker, the dress club of the college. Victoria Regier, president of the organization, invites all women students to attend.

"It is really a wonderful opportunity to see and hear about good taste in dress," said Miss Regier.

Busy Season For College Theatre

Ready for a season which from outward appearances will be one of the busiest in its history, College Theatre is making touches on a program they will give this Thursday at 11 a. m. and Friday at 12 m. entitled "Demonstration of One Act Plays." In it some of State's dramatic stars will display their talent in various roles. This "Demonstration" will give student critics an opportunity to voice their opinions.

"Dulcy," a farcical comedy by Kaufman, is being given serious consideration as the next play to be staged by College Theatre. Briefly the plot deals with a Billie Burkish creature who in her feather-brained manner tries to direct the lives and affairs of others with the ultimate result of chaos. Well suited to college dramatics, "Dulcy" is the best play under consideration so far, states Miss Casebolt, director of State dramatics.

St. Patrick Honored By Newman Members

Members of the Newman Club will celebrate St. Patrick's Day, March 17, by having a party at the club house, 350 Buchanan Street, announced President Jack Murphy.

There will first be a short meeting followed by the social and entertainment.

Miss Ann Lindquist, chairman for the entertainment, promises to present a program that will be enjoyed by everyone. Contributors to the show are Lorraine Sullivan, vocal selection; Virginia Gildea, dramatic skit, and Evelyn Fitzpatrick, tap dance. An added feature will be community singing of popular numbers.

Following the entertainment refreshments will be served. Ruth Beck is in charge.

Many Drill Teams Compete For Two Prize Awards

Opening shots in the ticket drive for Alpha Phi Gamma's coming Intercollegiate World's Fair were fired yesterday and today, according to word received from Marie Hirsch of the ticket committee. Sales will continue with the main hall as a headquarters until the night of the event.

Definite announcement as to the acts and demonstrations to be staged on the center oval the night of April 5th will not be made for several days, according to Will Smith, chairman of the fair. Smith promises an evening worth attending. He says, "In addition to a great variety of club and campus exhibits we will have a definite show of high quality to entertain those who attend. There will be demonstrations of an athletic nature as well as a colorful display of military units in marching formations. We are at present negotiating for a spectacular balancing stunt, which if obtained, should make the exposition worth attending."

College Quartet at Music Conference

On Tuesday evening, March 23, the State College String Quartet will perform for the Fresno section of the Southwestern Music Educators' Conference.

The newly organized quartet consists of Carlton Hansen, first violin; Leon Minear, second violin; Jack Murphy, viola; Richard Lotter, cello. They are under the direction of Mr. William F. Zech who has developed the string section of the college orchestras to their present high peak of performance.

The quartet will play the first movement of the Edward Grieg quartet in E minor, the scherzo from Mendelssohn's quartet in E major and Raff's "Mill." This will be the first time the Grieg number has been performed on the campus in many years.

"The quartet was the result of an impromptu affair that organized the first part of the semester, but has now grown to musical maturity and really deserves the excellent opportunity it has been given to represent this school," Carlton Hansen, treasurer of the Music Federation, who is the first violin, said when interviewed.

Ways and Means Committee Consider Maintenance Bill; Strategy Committee to be Present at Hearings

With a meeting of the House Ways and Means Committee scheduled for today, State's campaign for a new campus and new buildings will enter a third phase of activity.

Present at the meeting of the Ways and Means Committee meeting will be Edward Cockrum, Will Smith, Bud Decker, and Howard Demeke of the Strategy Committee. The group will be allowed to present their facts concerning conditions at the college. Sponsoring the strategy group will probably be several of the San Francisco delegation to the Assembly.

The meeting with the House Committee will be all-important, according to Will Smith, a member of the strategy group who may not be able to attend the meeting. "The Ways and Means Committee is an important group and one of the chief means of assuring success for the campaign. This House Committee will have the power to determine the size of the maintenance budget when it is presented to the floor of the House. After the budget has been voted upon by the Assembly it will be sent to the Senate. We expect results, but are faced with strong opposition," stated Will Smith.

The committee will leave early this morning for the Capitol.

NOTICE!

We are about to close our list of applications for NYA work for the rest of the semester. If there are students hoping to get work through NYA, we must receive their applications by the end of the week of March 8 to 12.

Ten Outstanding Years

On April 1 the faculty of the College, cooperating with other groups in the city will present a dinner in honor of the tenth anniversary of Dr. Alexander C. Roberts as president of San Francisco State College.

And ten gala years they have been, too, years of achievement, development, maturity. Years in which this college has grown from a mediocre school to one of the outstanding state colleges in California.

If the building program goes through the state legislature this spring, it will climax the period of achievement that marks Dr. Roberts' regime here. It will also pave the way for greater development in the future under his guidance. It will make possible adequate housing facilities for a splendid educational institution.

Every member of the student body should join in this gala celebration of ten outstanding years of development on the part of our college. Every student should join in expressing his appreciation to Dr. Roberts for his part in making the College the school it now is—a school that we can be proud to claim as our Alma Mater.

Many Thanks

Expressive of the college, is the present spirit of cooperation being afforded the Music Federation in preparing for its part in the coming musical convention.

The assistance of the college is being extended through its official organization, the Executive Board. The action of this body in supplying funds for entertaining the students from 110 schools at a dinner and dance has the thanks of every student in the college and special thanks of the music students.

It is in keeping with the finest traditions of the city, that this college unites to play host to these students.

Chamberlin's Tripe

Much as we hate to lavish more publicity on La Beetz, we'll have to comment on the odd sense of reciprocation that makes the I'm-going-so-steady-with-San-Anselmo gal go to the opera with Johnny Marks on account of she did some math for him.

* * *

We're so sorry and sympathetic about your having poison oak, Miss Senk, that we won't even comment on the tiny discrepancies in the tale of "how."

* * *

Not much use of doing even so much as mentioning the multitudinous intention-to-wed's that were tossed about at the Hop . . . so instead we'll breeze over some of the little oddities that were noticed . . . they are these:

Beeseman having such a jolly time, a certain gal whose name appears in countless songs of the South coming stag and not staying that way, Bull-in-the-China-Shoppe Ferem galavanting a la tux, Dan Farmer and wife who reminded us of first-daters . . . the exceedingly gay time had by Pauline Quirk after the Hop . . . and so on.

* * *

For the inner circle that is comprised of those who know why Harriet Decker didn't get to this Hop . . . may we comment that we approve heartily of all, save that part about phoning home and getting each member of the family out of bed to talk to her.

* * *

To Al Luntz: Does it seem necessary to be a sychophant to the extent of reading the book that Virginia's father wrote?

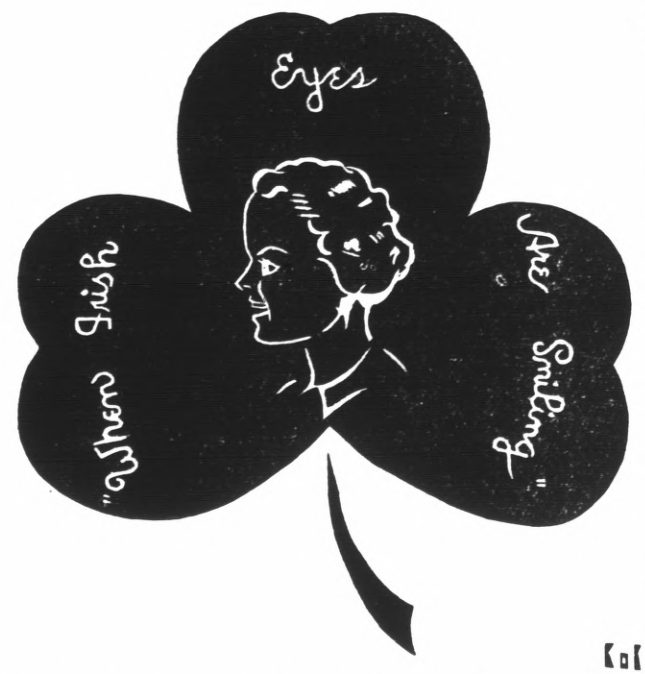
* * *

As for Sarita Canedo, she's seen much too often with that self-styled Casanova, Harold Herbert Jacobs . . . or if you prefer . . . just "Jake" . . . takes her to shows 'n' all . . . gee, Jake.

Pictures Taken Here

Golden Gater and Franciscan staff pictures will be taken at 12 on Friday. Pictures of clubs and organizations will be taken throughout the week.

"All club and class presidents whose organizations have not had their pictures taken, are asked to contact me through Box 837," declared Bill Buchan, associate editor, today.



"THE LUCK OF THE IRISH"

Behind The Scene

By Clarice Dechent

What's in a name? We sometimes wonder. Especially, when there are nearly 1400 involved. A glance through the monickers of those constituting the college roster discloses the following:

The animal kingdom is well represented at the college, with three Badgers, a Byrd, Crane, Robin, Fox, Kidd, and a Pidgeon. Less evident are the colors, which include only Black, Brown, White, Scarlett, and Green.

Basically workers, certain Staters must be—at least they were named for occupations. The "workers" include a Cook, Miller, Abbey, Hunter, Baker, Marshall, Messenger, Turner, Miner, Smith, Fisher, and Shepherd. There isn't a single Janitor or Laborer listed.

The most popular name in the college seems to be Smith, with eighteen representatives. The Johnsons are a close second, numbering sixteen.

Sure 'n 'its The Green They're A Wearin' Today

By Erin Go Bragh

We love but one emblem,
How proudly we wear it,
By saints, sage, and martyrs,
'Twas cherished of old.
No foe dare insult it,
No true Celt to bear it,
The shamrock entwined,
With the Green and the Gold.

. . . and the top o' the mornin' to you on this Saint Patrick's day! For it's the day of the wearin' of the green, the day for the O'Connells, the Murphys, and the O'Briens to dress in their Sunday finery, and celebrate the day of the patron saint of Ireland.

And faith, it's right here on the State campus that the celebratin' will be going on. The parades of the fife and drum corps, the marching platoons led by the flag of the green and the gold, the Gaelic games of hurling and Irish football have already taken place. But here it all has yet to come.

It will be jigs and reels that will be the order of the night when the Newman Club meets in its first Irish ball, and a sight these dancing couples should be, the colleens in the green o' the Emerald Isle and bits o' shamrock in their hair, surrounded by the gay, synthetic young sons of Erin, with laughing and joking to make this the gayest donnybrook that anyone ever did see.

And now it's time for that corned beef and cabbage, and apple pie and beer, a meal that would warm the heart of any good Irishman, and it's a good enough reason, in itself for the great celebration that takes place on a day like this.

Chill Winds Aid

* * *

B. V. D. Clads Work

By TIM GUINEY

Premature April showers aren't doing Coach Dave Cox' track team a bit of good, but there's nothing he relishes better than the sharp winds that sweep the cinder paths in the month of March.

About this time of year, a guy in BVD's doesn't need any spiritual inspiration to make him tear around a track as if he were being pursued by a million little blue devils, not to mention a few pink elephants of the "morning after" bedroom variety.

The only way to break the chill is to run and keep running. Frost forming on bare shanks is the greatest little inspiration in the world. The practice field has changed to something more resembling a gigantic endurance contest than anything else.

These days a person has no trouble at all in finding Daryl Hopkins romping up and down the stretch, and taking the hurdles as he comes to them, or vice versa. When he isn't picking 'em up and laying 'em down, the guy spends his time soaring off into space as the number one high jumper of the squad.

Of course, when Stan Kuder gets set in one of his specialties, the mile run, he forgets about weather and everything else except the man-size task of getting around that old course four times. Stan is the top miler here at State, and we're expecting big things from him this year.

Outstanding among the guys who eat their spinach, or the muscle men, if you prefer, is Steve Ebert, who tosses the shot and discus out for what, to these washed out old eyes, often seems to be miles and miles. Dick Hurst is the fella who tosses out the javelin for the local squad, with Eric Pantages trying to crowd him out

Alf Thomas is the Gater pole vaulter and is figured to be one of the best as soon as he rounds out into mid-season shape. And from this we graduate to the toughest one of them all, the two-mile run, featuring the iron-man Jr. of the squad, Biff Shreeve.

Farmer Men Drop Second League Match

U. S. F. Netmen Humbles Gaters 6 to 3 at Palace of Fine Arts

Still in the cellar, as far as the Northern California Intercollegiate Tennis Association league is concerned, State's tennis team dropped a 6-3 decision to U. S. F. Friday at the Palace of Fine Arts courts.

State won only one singles match and two of the three doubles. English, No. 1 man on the State varsity, kept his record clear by defeating Lang of the Dons by 6-4, 6-0 scores. He later teamed with Doug Crary to defeat Lang and Herbert in the first doubles match by 7-5, 9-7, 6-1 scores.

Rosen and Morrison took Smith and Bava in another 3-set match. Final scores being 7-9, 6-4, 6-3.

A summary follows:

SINGLES: English (S) d. Lang 6-4; 6-0: Clicak (USF) d. Crary 6-2; 6-2; Herbert (USF) d. Morrison 6-0; 6-1; Woehl d. Kavanaugh 6-0; 3-6; 6-4; Dopello (USF) d. Elvers 6-2; 6-2 Bava (USF) d. Pena 6-1; 6-1. DOUBLES: English and Crary (S) d. Lang and Herbert 7-5; 9-7; 6-1: Rosen and Morrison (S) d. Smith and Bava 7-9; 6-4; 6-3; Kane and Roseri (USF) d. Vogalkin and Carson 6-1; 6-2.

Farmer intends to put the squad through an intensive practice session this week in an endeavor to break the slump. The entire squad will work out with team members in games and practicing shorts in preparation for the tussle with St. Marys this Saturday.

As the N. C. I. Tennis League is based on a round-robin schedule, the Gaters still have a chance to wipe out the two defeats and finish on top.

Jaysee, Gaters To Meet In Ring

A gigantic ring show featuring sluggers and muscle benders from S. F. Junior College and S. F. State to be held at the most convenient place and at the most suitable time is being planned by promoters from both institutions.

An invitation to combine forces and present the show was received by A.M.S. officers last week. Action on the matter was immediately taken and Maury Schwartz and Sid Traeger were appointed to organize and develop a squad of boxers and wrestlers to compete with the Rams.

Postponed Track Meet With Cal-Aggies Goes On Today

Rain Causes Shift In Baseball Sched. Games This Week

Once again the tumultuous downpour of Jupiter Pluvious caused the postponement of a baseball game as State's contests slated with Menlo Junior College and San Jose State were called off.

Not everything was lost, however, as the San Jose game was pushed ahead to Wednesday, April 14. This combined with the duel for April 3 at San Jose still gives the Gater nine a chance to beat the Spartans twice.

The Menlo series, however, will be limited to the one game that is to be played April 2 at Menlo. This was to have been a game for the second team, but more high school contests will have to be slated for them.

Team Works Hard

Because of the lack of practice, Coach Hal Harden will have to work his team overtime for the games with California and the California Aggies this week.

The Mustang contest is slated for tomorrow afternoon in Roberts Field and should be something to see. The Gaters will be anxious to go following the long lay-off and to prepare for the Golden Bear tussle at Berkeley this Saturday.

The State squad has met consistent defeat at the hands of Cal and Harden is anxious to wipe the blot off the records. With the number of outstanding fielders and sluggers in abundance, he might succeed in this try.

Racket Wielders Win Over Aggies

With the match depending on the outcome, State's tennis team pulled a Frank Merriwell to take their first victory of the season. With the match score standing at 4 even, Trevinon and Pena defeated Booth and Tufts of the Aggie squad, 6-2, 6-3, to give Coach Dan Farmer cause for rejoicing.

Ronnie English continued his string of collegiate net victories. He defeated Enghand, No. 1 man of the Mustangs, in an easy match. Final scores being 6-1, 6-1.

State took four of the six singles matches and one of the three doubles events.

Summary follows:

SINGLES: English d. Enghand, 6-1, 6-1; Kavanaugh (S) d. Woteman, 4-6, 6-3, 6-3; Morrison (S) d. Booth, 6-1, 6-1; Maguire (C.A.) d. Lomkin, 6-4, 6-2; Griffith (C.A.) d. Vogulkin, 6-4, 6-3; Rosen (S) d. Tufts, 6-0, 6-2.

DOUBLES: Tomkin & Enghand (C.A.) d. English & Evers, 4-6, 8-6, 8-6; Waterman & Griffith (C.A.) d. Rosen and Morrison, 6-3, 5-7, 7-5; Trevinon and Pena (S) d. Booth and Tufts, 6-2, 6-3.

Delay Gives State Tracksters Extra Time For Much Needed Practice Work

By Jim Martin

Delayed by adverse weather conditions, the annual meeting of the Mustang from Cal-Aggie and the Golden Gater of S. F. State on the track and field will take place today in Kezar Stadium. Hostilities commence at 2:30 p. m.

The postponement of the meet, which was to be held last Saturday, proved a boon to Coach Dave Cox, the head man of the scantily-clad athletes.

The track mentor was a little worried because of injuries received in practice by Bill Harkness, star pole vaulter, and Daryl Hopkins, record-breaking hurdler and number one man in the high jump event. However, the delay gave both performers a much-needed chance to round into shape.

Extra Time Used

In addition, Cox has been using the extra time to work with Stan Kuder, red-headed distance man. Kuder, who looks mighty classy while covering the 880 yard and mile turns, has had a little trouble getting back into top competition form.

Kuder will match strides with Ralph Throop of the Aggies in the four-lap event which should be the feature match of the day. Throop has been rated as an up-and-comer with a great deal of potential ability. Kuder has been clocked at 4:49.8 already this season, and the red-headed galloper says he is going to find out what he really can do today.

The second duel of the day finds Fred Frick of the Mustangs and Hopkins in the leading role in the timber-topping events. Both have covered the low and high hurdle distances in respective times of 16 flat and 25.6 seconds. Whether or not the injury will keep Hoppy from approaching these times remains to be seen.

Meet is Important

Too, the meet will be important in that Cox will be able to classify two of his greatest worries and unknown quantities, the sprinters and weight tossers.

Steve Ebert, Dick Hurst, and neophyte Eric Pantages have yet to set any kind of a mark in the discus, shot put, and javelin throw. The Mustangs are not expected to show much in these events and Cox wants to take plenty of time with his proteges.

The Gater sprint squad in the persons of Errol Evans, Ernest Peninov and Ronnie Lindlow face this first meet of the season with apprehension. Evans and Peninov are new-comers out to make a mark in State colors.

Gater Squad Trounces Rams On Diamond

Hardens Proteges Hand Jaysees Shellacking to Continue Win Streak

By Jim Martin

Don't let your blood pressure rise to such heights, ever-so-patient reader. We know that the State-Jaysee baseball game which was slated for yesterday was cancelled by the Ragged Rams of chronic forgetfulness.

We know that the inmates of the Powell Street Orphanage professed ignorance that such a contest had really been scheduled. As thou, we cannot understand why their manager who is supposed to be of Junior College intelligence can pull such a neat trick as scheduling two games on one day.

Innocent Editor

Your sports editor, innocently believing that the Rams were in earnest when the contest was announced, set up the above head-line and deck before the game was played. Then all that would be needed was a little information as to the final score, number of home-runs by Hal Wood, and total of Jaysee pitchers knocked out of the box (if they have more than one) and another massacre of the Rams at the hands of the Gaters would be chronicled in history.

Stay of Execution

Even though the stay of execution has been granted until "some time next week," the Ram manager humorously puts it, I cannot see myself wasting such a good head-line. As things will eventually terminate as indicated, there is nothing to be gained by tossing some of the printers' best efforts into the ash-can alongside the letter from Jaysee.

So if you see the above headline in the Gater "some time next week" don't think you have an old paper. Possibly the game will have really happened or else the Rams' manager scheduled three games for that day!

Golf League Starts Minus Gater Squad

As published in the Gater some time ago, S. F. State was entered in a golf league—almost. According to Dean of Athletics Dave Cox, the almost has turned into a freeze-out with the newly-formed league already well under way.

At the beginning of the season, Cox received an invitation to join the group. He answered with more than a little eagerness to enter as the step would help to build up a minor sports program. The only reply received was notices in local papers that the league had started.

However, Cox intends to hold the inter-class tournament following the baseball play-offs. In this way, interest will be created in the sport for the following season.

Dean Ward Answers Students' Questions

In order to determine the quality of work done by students on the N. Y. A., Dean Ward has issued a questionnaire to all faculty members using women student help. This form includes questions as to the quality of their work, the degree of responsibility they assume, and whether or not the faculty member wants the student reassigned to him.

Dean Ward has indicated that students will not be employed for the new month until a report of that student's work is turned in by the particular faculty member in charge of her.

These records will be compiled, and will become a part of the student's activity record.

Open Road Hears Address

Speaking on modern Japan, Mr. Joseph Tsukamoto addressed the Open Road at its meeting last Friday. Mr. Tsukamoto told of the great need for Japan to change her present policy, otherwise, he states, Japan is headed for complete destruction. He does not defend nor offer an apology for Japanese aggression. Nor does he blame the Japanese people. It is not a race that can be blamed, but rather is it the existing evils behind the race, evils such as greed, selfishness, and political aggrandizement that are to be blamed. People will be what they have been reared to be, and the Japanese youth is being reared and educated along the lines of a rigid militaristic psychology. He stated further that applied religion, specifically the teachings of Christianity, will be the salvation of Japan.

U. S. F. Prof. Speaks

Mr. Daniel O'Dooley, of the University of San Francisco, will be the next speaker in the World Tomorrow lecture series being offered by State free to the public. "Irish Culture in American Living" will be the subject of his talk. The strong influence of the Irish people on our national life makes this particular lecture unusually interesting, according to the Symposium Committee.

Ruby Keeler says:

"Luckies are a light smoke that treat a tender throat right"

"In a way, it's easier to keep in condition as a dancer than as a singer. Exercise can keep the muscles in shape, but there are a lot of things that can go wrong with the voice and throat. It stands to reason, then, that any actress wants a cigarette that is gentle and strikes the right note with her throat. I started smoking Luckies 4 years ago. They're a light smoke that treat a tender throat right."

NOW APPEARING IN
"READY, WILLING AND ABLE"

An independent survey was made recently among professional men and women—lawyers, doctors, lecturers, scientists, etc. Of those who said they smoke cigarettes, more than 87% stated they personally prefer a light smoke.

Miss Keeler verifies the wisdom of this preference, and so do other leading artists of the radio, stage, screen and opera. Their voices are their fortunes. That's why so many of them smoke Luckies. You, too, can have the throat protection of Luckies—a light smoke, free of certain harsh irritants removed by the exclusive process "It's Toasted". Luckies are gentle on the throat.
